

FINANCIAL PLANNING

February 22nd, 6:30-7:30pm Zoom

You don't need a lot of money to make a financial plan, but you do need to plan. Saving money is crucial for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD) to live full lives. A financial plan can help determine how a person with IDD will pay for the things they want and need in the future.

Learn about

- ✓ How to save money and navigate public benefits
- ✓ ABLE Accounts
- ✓ Special Needs Trusts

Presenter:

Brandon Erickson, attorney

Register

donnaatherton@arcminnesota.org

218-233-0853