

Involving young students in their IEP meeting

Students as young as Kindergarten
should participate
in their meeting in some way.

Just being at a meeting will help the student feel like a part of their team.

Introducing
parents or themselves is a great way to start
at a young age.

Students can share
their successes and challenges.

Student will feel
more comfortable
with the team each
year.

